

Blue house points

- The children's house points are consecutive numbers.
- The total score for Blue house was 144.
- Each line of three children receive the same total of points.
- Everyone has different number of house points.
- All children's house points were two-digit numbers.
- James has the least house points and sits in the same line as the girl who received more house points than anyone else.
- James did not have the same number of points as Roman.